P.C.

Since the main Writ Petition has been disposed of on 28th April 2005, the Civil Application does not merit consideration. However, it is clarified that since this Court had not had any occasion to deal with the eligibility of the proposed allottees, it would be open to the applicants, if they seek to do so, to raise all appropriate contentions before the Trial Court in regard to questions of eligibility of the 55 persons who form the subject matter of the Civil Application. The Civil Application is disposed of.
